RE: Recommendation for Ms. Jill Petersen

Jill excels at generating innovative ideas, approaches and solutions. She is very resourceful in devising new ways to accomplish goals, looking beyond the strict interpretation of her duties. Additionally, Jill actively keeps up-to-date with developments in her field by reading extensively, attending seminars and using contacts in the industry. Overall, she is a highly productive contributor to the organization, works efficiently and volunteers for extra assignments when necessary.

The qualities of Jill discussed are a perfect foundation for admission into an M.B.A program. A program of this nature will groom Jill's career in Marketing and assist in understanding all other functions of business.

Sincerely,

Mr. Michael McWilliams
Vice-President of Operations
